WAY 2 GO IOWA!

This spring, the Iowa Senate passed SR 39, proclaiming the third week in October 2007 as Disability History Week. Rep. Lisa Heddens, along with a group of seven additional state representatives, had introduced the resolution in the house. Alissa Brammer, the staffer in Governor Culver's office who coordinates the issuance of proclamations, has assured Iowa Disability Rights leaders that the governor will sign a Disability History Week proclamation at a ceremony later this summer.

Iowa's Department of Education Legislative Liaison Mr. Jeff Berger has stated that the Department of Education will circulate information to school districts throughout the state concerning Disability History Week. It is the disability community's sincere hope that the Department of Education will give us the go-ahead to develop a list of curriculum resources and to work with districts to plan fun and informative Disability History Week activities.

A RESOLUTION TO DECLARE THE THIRD WEEK OF OCTOBER, 2007, DISABILITY HISTORY WEEK IN IOWA

WHEREAS, on July 26, 2006, Americans celebrated the 16th anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA); and

WHEREAS, since the ADA was enacted into law in 1990, many changes have been made, creating a more accessible environment for America's approximately 51.2 million people with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, there are almost 400,000 persons with disabilities living in Iowa, according to the 2000 United States Census; and

WHEREAS, this number qualifies persons with disabilities as Iowa's largest minority group; and

WHEREAS, Americans with disabilities face a 44 percent unemployment rate; and

WHEREAS, public attitudes continue to stigmatize people with disabilities as being less capable than those without disabilities; and

WHEREAS, many people with disabilities feel that stigma and therefore are not comfortable talking about their disability; and

WHEREAS, attitudes are formed at a young age; and

WHEREAS, the curriculum in many Iowa schools includes information about the civil rights movement and women's rights movement, exposing students to the accomplishments of other minority groups; and

WHEREAS, individuals with disabilities have achieved similar victories as a result of the disability rights movement; and

WHEREAS, many famous people, including Ludwig Von Beethoven, Alexander Graham Bell, and Franklin Delano Roosevelt have been people with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, students are not typically exposed to the disability rights movement; and
WHEREAS, many Iowa teachers believe that their students should learn about the history and accomplishments of individuals with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, Iowans with disabilities are eager to share their history and accomplishments with young people; and

HEREAS, such education will improve public attitudes toward individuals with disabilities for generations to come;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE, That the third week of October, 2007, be declared Disability History Week in Iowa; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Iowa Department of Education is requested to encourage schools to conduct disability awareness activities during this week and to work with Iowa disability organizations to develop and disseminate a list of curriculum resources and presenters to assist schools in carrying out these activities.

IOWA NEWS

Would you like to make a difference in someone's life in your community? Are you resourceful? Are you a good communicator? The League of Human Dignity's Christy Solomon, the Director of our Southwest Iowa Center for Independent Living, answered those questions with a resounding YES and she went through the required training. The League of Human Dignity in Iowa is happy to add this new service (Independent Support Broker) to its long list of services.

The position of Independent Support Broker is new for Iowa's Medicaid Waiver programs, but other states have been using Independent Support Brokers for several years. As an Independent Support Broker, the League will work for people with disabilities or older

Iowans who want to use an allowance of public funds to purchase their own supports and services.

The League will be a key element to help people with disabilities live their life according to their own personal aspirations and preferences. League employees can help them design a personal budget for their services, hire their own workers and make any future adjustments to their budget. This new program for Medicaid Waiver consumers is called Consumer Choices Option. More information is available at: www.ime.state.ia.us/HCBS/HCBSConsumerOptions.html or call our CIL at (712) 323-6863.

AUCTION RECAP

On Friday, April 20th, the League of Human Dignity hosted its 7th Annual Benefit Auction at the Ameristar Casino in Council Bluffs, Iowa. 'Stars & Strides' was the theme of the night as close to a hundred and fifty people gathered to help a good cause and get a good bargain.

The League's auction benefits the Southwest Iowa Center for Independent Living in Council Bluffs and the Omaha Center for Independent Living. Each year people gather to enjoy an array of wonderful items up for bid either on the silent auction or the live auction. There is a balloon raffle and even a cash raffle in which the winner goes home with half of the total pot of cash -- not a bad deal. Plus, there is always an awesome buffet and door prizes galore.

The League would like to express its gratitude to Auctioneer Shayne Fili and her staff, KETV anchor John Oakey, the auction planning committee members Jason Velinsky and Karen Goehring, and all of the volunteers who helped make the evening a huge success.

The League would also like to send a big Thank You out to its Corporate Table Sponsors for the night: AFSCME Local 2991, Aquila Inc., Great Plains Auto Body, Immanuel Personal Response System, Intel/Global Travel, Jenco, Lozier Corporation, Southwest Iowa Labor Council, and Underwood Construction Management.

If you weren't able to join us this year, we missed you and hope you can join us next year about this time for another fun evening.
